GOVERNOR RESENTS RACE PREJUDICE STUART'S ATTACK IN MANDAMUS CASE

Motion To Strike and Demurrer Filed, Term Desired Order As Vague

SUIT IMPERTINENT AND SCANDALOUS, IS CLAIM

Land Commissioner Contends Petitioner Has No Cause of Action In Premises

"Immaterial, irrelevant, impertinent scandalons, and a reflection on the con duct" of the Governor and his land commission are the terms used in a motion to strike and expunge from the complaint the meat and substance of charges made by Circuit Judge Stuart in the suit recently instituted by him concerning the administration of the land laws by the local adminis tration.

A motion to strike and expunge and a denurrer to the writ of mandamm against the Governor and Land Commis stoner Tucker were filed in the circuit court at three o'clock on Wednesday Benjamin N. Kahalepuna afternoon. clerk of Judge Stuart's court, was se anxious to show the papers to perior that he took them to the judge for perusal without loss of time, or even noting on the office blotter that they had been filed.

Kahalepuna returned the paper to the files of the office of the clerk of the circuit court yesterday, when it be came public that the documents had been filed. To all intents and purposes the latest "scraps of paper" in land war between Judge Stuart and Governor Pinkham lay dormant and 'on the secret file'' until Clerk Kaha lepuna saw fit to give them the proper place in the office records. Would Expunge Much

The motion to strike and expunge i u lengthy one, page after page being occupied with indented excerpts from the original petition, which was print ed fully in The Advertiser immediately after the suit was filed.

The Governor and his land commis sioner, through Attorney General Stain back, want striken from the writ all reference to the Act of Congress in regard to the right of twenty-five or more persons making application fo the opening of homestead lands. The portion which says that the Governo and the land commissioner have willing ly violated the provisions of law, have failed and refused to survey and open up the land, reference to the duty of the respondents and that part regardinfrivolous excuses for their non-compli ance, are to be expunged and strick en, if the motion should be granted.

The respondents also want stricken and expunged the alternative command that certain things be done by the Gov ernor and the land commissioner to sui the exactions and wishes of Judge Stu-The ment of the motion appears i the concluding paragraph, which reads Impertinent And Scandalous'

'This motion is based upon the grounds that the said matters and things are immaterial, irrelevant, imper tinent, scandalous, and a reflection or the conduct of the said respondents, a public officials, and based further upon all the pleadings herein."

Nor is the abjective section exhaust ed in the paragraph quoted above. The demurrer says that the writ of man damus is "uncertain, unintelligible vague and ambiguous," and that is does not state sufficient facts to consti tate a cause of action or entitle Judge Stuart to relief in the manner prayer

The demurrer further says that ther is not shown the existence of any of ficial duty on the part of Land Commissioner Tucker to perform the actthe judge would have him enforce.

Paragraph IV of the demurrer says: That the alleged duties sought to be enforced are discretionary and not min by mandamus,

M. Cooke, who, on account of her absence from the city, was represented by her son, Clarence H. Cooke.

Among the speakers of the day were Supervisor Daniel Logan, who represented the mayor and city, and in a few well selected words he testified to the worth of the work of the women of the home in this city. Adjutant Sabine, the superintendent of the home, spoke of the children.

W. A. Bowen spoke of and for the riends of the home, while Lieut. Col. Blanche Cox of the Salvation Army read the program.

Mrs. L. McCandless of the Hawaiian Humane Society, made the prinfollows:

Mrs. McCandless' Address

"Asked by the committee to make few remarks at the dedication of this beautiful new cottage, I inquired as to why I should be so honored and was told that, first, it was because of my onnection with the Hawaiian Humane Society, and second, because it was so easy for a woman to talk. A. M. Christy Tells Supervisors He Is Tired of Being On Carpet

TROUBLE ARISES OVER DIVERTING SCHOOL FUND

Row Starts When Legal Light Says Money Specifically Appropriated Must Stand

Dan Logan, veteran and venerable supervisor, brought down a veritable hornet's nest about his ears inst night when he ventured to disagree with the two deputies of the city attorney's of

"I'm tired of having to come befor this board to defend myself every time the attorney's office renders an opinion for the board," announced A. M. Cristy, the first deputy, "If the board doesn't like the legal opinions of its legal department it has the privelege of firing those members and getting a new set of counsellors."

Heated words to similar effect had been attered previously by the second deputy, W. T. Carden. The unpleasantness arose over a legal opinion which said the supervisors positively could not appropriate unexpended balances 8:30 a. in certain funds in a blanket sum for new buildings at Manoa school and for certain other additions needed to reheve congested schools.

Funds For Specific Purposes

The opinion said this could not be done because the funds were set aside by the legislature for specific di triets, and unexpended balances must be spent in those schools. The total balance amounts to about $10,000. As part of the new school funds available January 1, these balances can be used next year in ways not specified by law for them vation Army Home indeed has to do at the present time, but they cannot be ounched this year.

Logan thought this was a shameful situation, because certain institutions, such as the Mnnon school, badly need more room right now. He thought the legal department had not gove into the question from the proper angle and | the deputy city attorneys took um brage.

Supervisor Arnold succeeded in quiet ing affairs somewhat by the assertion that the board had never had a more satisfactory set of legal lights than the present one, and other words to the J. D. Fraser, Jasper Gibb. H. Hadfield same general effect. No Attorney's Word Law
